

I Don't Want to Go Home

There are lots of “going back home” songs. I don't remember any that said I don't want to go home. So, it's a good original twist that also fits a lot of people's feelings about home. Just hasn't been sung before like this. But it's just as BIG of an emotion as wanting to go home.

Josh Rumer produced this with me and wrote all of the violin parts, among other brilliant contributions. Toshi Yanagi plays one of the most beautiful emotion-packed guitar parts the song could ever have played. It's the only place on the album it isn't just me playing guitar. But the two of us together delivers a great impact.

The chords are interestingly different. Not just another 3-chord song at all. With inverse / reverse chords from one line to another in one place. Very emotive and deep hitting. Michelle Alany's violin parts cut through you.

G Bm C G
I don't want to go home - I don't want to go home
Em A Am7 D7
Feels more lonely there than when I'm all alone
G Bm C G
Don't have me no key to open up the door
Am7 A C D7
I don't want to go home - I don't want to go home

Em C G D7
Ooh-oooh I don't care anymore
Ooh-oooh I don't care anymore
I got a life to live anywhere I go anymore
I don't care - I don't care anymore

I don't want to go home - I don't want to go home
Leave a message please or you can text my phone
Don't have me no map to find my way back
I don't want to go home - I don't want to go home

Ooh-oooh I don't care anymore
Ooh-oooh ... I don't care anymore
I got a life to live anywhere I go anymore
I don't care - I don't care anymore

Em | G | (repeats)
Whoa, whoa, whoa
I don't want to go home
Em C G D7
No, no, no... No

Ooh, I don't care anymore
Ooh-oooh I don't care anymore

Ooh-oooh I don't care anymore
Ooh-oooh ... I don't care anymore
I got a life to live anywhere I go anymore
I don't care - I don't care anymore
